Evening Bus Service Into And Out Of Gettysburg Is Discontinued As Of Today

Night bus service into and out of Gettysburg will be discontinued tonight, according to a letter read to borough council at a meeting in the engine house Tuesday evening.

Russell Van Atta, traffic manager of Capitol Trailways, one of the bus lines operating through here, informed council of the discontinuance of the service in the following letter:

"Your letter of August 25, 1959, in reference to the bus stop on Chambersburg St. in the borough of Gettysburg.

"We ourselves, along with other drivers, have made some checks and find that not only bus passengers are sitting on the steps at the parish house but also tourists who come into Gettysburg and are walking around looking the borough over.

Abandon Four Trips
"Capitol Trailways are not in favor of bus passengers using the church yard or the steps and we have taken steps to remedy this situation as of Thursday, September 10, 1959, whereby we are changing our schedule and taking four trips out of the borough of Gettysburg on our Washington-Scranton division and also we are eliminating two round-trips between Gettysburg and Baltimore. This means we will have no buses in Gettysburg after 6:15 p.m. where passengers will be making connections with another bus.

"We know by eliminating these coaches the people of Gettysburg are not going to have the best of bus service but at least our buses will be in Gettysburg during the daylight hours.

"Our company cannot build a station in Gettysburg, Pa., or increase its present expenses.

Greyhound Concur
"I am very sorry that I could not attend your meeting this date, but have been in contact with Mr. Hilton, of Eastern Greyhound lines, and I am sure he will represent Capitol Trailways in this matter."

Hilton appeared briefly at the meeting and said he concurred with Trailways and that both bus lines will remove night service here.

Radford H. Lippy, chairman of the building committee for Christ Lutheran Church, appeared at Tuesday's meeting to complain of use of the Christ Church property by bus passengers at night "as a toilet."

COUNCIL OKAYS METER COLORS AND CHANGES

An ordinance was passed by council Tuesday evening providing for the installation of additional parking meters and permitting the safety committee to designate colors of the meters, location of the meters, the number of hours authorized by the meters and the closing hour, whether 6 p.m. or 10 p.m. The ordinance was in accord with the action taken by council last month in setting up a new parking meter plan for the community.

On petition of Allen A. Larson and "Larson Corporation" the borough annexed the land owned by the Larsons in Cumberland Twp. into the borough. Larson explained that the Larson Tourist Court is partly in Cumberland and partly in the borough and said that for business purposes and safety consideration, it was desired to bring the entire tourist court into the town.

May Move Home
S. F. Snyder asked council for information as to moving a house from Railroad St. to the north side of Delap Ave. in order to "devote the entire area I own from Delap Ave. to Railroad St. to parking. I believe that we can park 100 cars there." The matter was referred to the burgess.

When the secretary told council that no answer had been received to his letter last month to the Western Maryland railroad asking that tracks across Stratton St. be brought to the grade of the street, council voted to inform the Pennsylvania Utility Commission.

Councilman Philip M. Jones reported "two or three new propositions have been received on lights in the center of town. We expect to be able to report next month."

WILL REBUILD SPAN; ORDER WALKS, CURBS

The Gettysburg borough council, meeting Tuesday evening at the engine house, voted to rebuild and enlarge the Fourth St. bridge across Stevens Run and to order property owners along the west side of Fourth St., from York St. to Broadway, to place sidewalks and curbs within the next 30 days.

The action came after approximately 15 residents of the eastern end of the borough, for whom Robert Schriver and James A. Treas served as spokesmen, urged council to "do something" to protect their children who are now attending the Eisenhower School.

They told council that the children "have to walk in the street, which may not be too bad now, although it is dangerous—but will be a greater danger in winter when there is snow." They also complained of the condition of the bridge, declaring, "There's a hole in the flooring big enough to put your foot through."

Take Quick Action
Council President H. M. Oyler said, "I don't think the school board has given the town any consideration whatsoever in this," but promised speedy action. He promised the group that the highway and safety committees will "study this and report a report as soon as possible. If they can get the report completed quickly enough we'll hold a special meeting of council right away to act on the matter."

At the close of council meeting Oyler again brought up the matter of providing sidewalks for school children. Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell Jr. said he had counted 47 youngsters using Fourth St., "walking in the road." Members of the highway and safety committees, without leaving the council table, made recommendations that the bridge be rebuilt and notices be sent on sidewalks and curbs and council passed the motions immediately.

Kiwanis Will Sponsor Kids' Day

The Gettysburg Kiwanis Club will sponsor local observance of national Kids' Day here on Saturday, September 26, it was decided Tuesday evening at the weekly dinner meeting of the club at Bren-Da's Restaurant, Fairfield Rd.

The club will join with Kiwanis Clubs across the nation in the observance. Locally, peanuts will be sold to raise funds for the boys' and girls' work projects of the Gettysburg club.

President Robert McCoy presided at the meeting at which Wayne Cluck was presented with a perfect attendance tab for a two-year record. Frank Gillern, manager of the John C. Lower Company, was a guest.

BOY, 3, BADLY HURT BY AUTO

A three-year-old Hanover R. 4. boy was critically injured when he was struck by a pickup truck as he dived across the road in front of his home about a quarter mile west of McSherrytown along the Hanover-Gettysburg Rd. Tuesday at 11:30 a.m.

The boy, Robert Lewis Masenheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Masenheimer Jr., was admitted to the Hanover Hospital suffering from a depressed fracture of the skull and a fracture of the upper right leg. His condition was listed as critical.

State police here said the pickup truck, owned by B. C. Schuchart, Inc., 720 Elm Ave., Hanover, was operated by Cyril T. Sheely, 38, of 406 Allegheny Ave., Hanover.

According to police Mrs. Fred Neiderer, a neighbor, accompanied by the Masenheimer boy and her children, Stephen, five; Theresa, four; Linda, two, and Philip, one, was standing on the north side of the road at the Masenheimer home waiting to cross to the Neiderer residence.

Mrs. Neiderer told police she had cautioned the children to wait until traffic was clear but that the Masenheimer boy darted across the highway and was struck by the truck which was moving east.

REBERT QUILTS TOWN COUNCIL; ORDAIN COLT PARK STREETS

In a series of ordinances, Gettysburg Borough council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house approved extensions of a series of streets in the Colt Park area which eventually will tie together the network of streets in that area.

The resignation of C. Donald Rebert as a councilman from the Third Ward was accepted with regret. Council President H. M. Oyler said the resignation was based upon a change in Rebert's work which makes it impossible for him to attend the council sessions. He added, "He has been an excellent councilman."

The other Third Ward councilmen, Oyler and Robert D. Fidler, are to make a recommendation for a replacement at next month's meeting of council.

To Start Surfacing

The new ordinances extend Sunset Ave. for 987 feet to meet a proposed extension of King St.; extend Long Lane for 665 feet to meet the extension of Highland Ave.; extend Highland Ave. 765 feet to meet Long Lane; extend King St. 821 feet to meet Long Lane and extend Fairview Ave. 290 feet to meet Sunset Ave.

While the ordinance put the proposed street extensions into the borough system it was indicated that surfacing of the new streets will proceed as homes are built along the new streets. Council voted to pave 150 feet of Highland Ave., 150 feet of Johns St. and 600 feet of Sunset Ave. this fall.

Wait Some Deeds

After passing the ordinances council found it had not yet received deeds to the streets and instructed the burgess to place his signature on the ordinances only after the deeds to the property had been transferred to the borough.

Council indicated to Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner that the surfacing of the new street should follow construction of a bridge at Fourth St. which

ST. JOSEPH'S ORIENTATION BEGINS TODAY

Approximately 160 incoming students began orientation activities today at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, featured by an alumnae open house for the students and their parents.

This evening the president, Sister Hilda, will greet the freshmen at 7:30 o'clock. A mixer will be held for the new students and the orientation committee.

Freshman registration will take place Thursday. Other events Thursday include a meeting with Sister Rosemary, dean of studies; a tour of the campus and a Meet-the-Faculty session in the Student Center at 7:30 p.m.

Other Events Scheduled

Friday's program includes a meeting with the dean of studies, a testing program and club orientation. A picnic supper will be held by Toms Creek with entertainment by upperclassmen. Following testing Saturday morning, the freshmen will visit Mount St. Mary's and the groto on the mountain side. A swimming party and open house will be held in the evening.

Local Bank Will Up Interest Rate

President C. A. Wills of the Gettysburg National Bank announced this morning that, effective October 1, that bank will pay three per cent interest on savings accounts, an increase of one-half per cent over the present rate.

His announcement followed an authorization by the State Banking Department Tuesday under which commercial and savings banks in the state may boost their interest rate to three per cent.

State Secretary of Banking Robert L. Myers Jr., pointed out that the new authorization does not require banks to make the increase but gives them permission to do so.

President Wills said he welcomes the new state ruling. "In Maryland and some other fringe areas, banks have been permitted to pay three per cent for some time and as a result Pennsylvania banks have seen funds transferred out of the state for better interest rates." He recalled that the Gettysburg National had sought to increase its interest rates to three per cent on January 1, 1958, but had been restrained by regulations of the state banking department.

South Mountain Fair Opens

The 36th annual South Mountain Fair opened Tuesday evening with a large crowd in attendance at the fairgrounds near Arendtsville. Patrons started arriving early in the afternoon and kept up a constant flow through the early evening. Below is a view of the parking area before the official opening at 6 o'clock. The exposition continues all week through Saturday. (Times Photo)

BETTER FAIR IS REPORTED BY OFFICIALS

Today was 4-H and judging day at the South Mountain Fair which opened Tuesday with attendance a shade under last year. But from all reports this year's Arendtsville fair, the 36th annual South Mountain Fair, is a better fair than any of its predecessors have been with better entries in all classes other than the livestock and cattle which are slightly under those of a year ago. Hog entries were much better.

Experts from Penn State University were busy today checking the numerous entries in all the classes and their subdivisions, a tedious project, requiring patience and thoroughness.

Free entertainment drew good audiences to the Memorial Auditorium to hear Texas Jim Robertson and Chuck Palmer and His Ranch Rhythm Boys as the radio and TV stars sang and played their way through a group of western and novelty songs. The entertainers play a variety of instruments including guitar, banjo, musical washboard and many other novelty instruments. Entertainment is held at 2:30 and 8 p.m. daily.

First Launching Of Unmanned Space Model Fails; Capsule Is Recovered Afloat In Ocean

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A mechanical failure marred the first rocket launching of an unmanned space capsule model today but the capsule itself was quickly located afloat on the ocean.

Less than four hours after the 2:19 a.m. blastoff from the missile test station, a Navy plane flying over the Atlantic reported it had sighted the vehicle. It was several hundred miles short of its goal.

Rear Adm. Harry Smith, commander of the recovery operation, did not pinpoint the location. He told a news conference that two destroyers were rushing to the spot. They were expected to arrive about 9:30 a. m. (EST).

Booster Stage Fails

At first it was believed that the test of the capsule designed to carry the Mercury astronauts into space had been a complete failure.

The booster stage of the powerful Atlas rocket failed to drop off after burnout 2 minutes and 40 seconds after the blastoff.

The extra weight prevented the main body of the rocket from traveling its full distance under the power of its sustainer engine.

Robert Gilruth, Project Mercury director, reported that the missile flew low and failed to obtain the desired velocity. For that reason it fell several hundred miles short of its intended target area 2,000 miles down the Atlantic missile range.

Fell Below Goal

The Atlas was supposed to boost the one-ton capsule to a height of 100 miles. Gilruth said he did not know how far up the Atlas actually went, but it was considerably below the 100-mile level.

Gilruth said good signals were received from the capsule for about 12 minutes after launching. Had all gone right, the capsule would have covered the intended 2,000 miles in 20 minutes.

Gilruth said that there is still

Holiday Toll Is Up To 438

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A final tally shows 438 persons died in traffic accidents during the 78 hours of the Labor Day holiday weekend.

The record of 461 was set in 1951.

The National Safety Council had estimated 450 lives would be lost in traffic during the weekend extending from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday, local time.

In addition to deaths from traffic accidents this year, there were 29 drownings resulting from boating accidents, 62 nonboating drownings and 84 deaths from miscellaneous accidents. The overall total for the holiday was 613.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB HEARS TALK ON INDIA

Prabhakar Akolekar, instructor in economics at Gettysburg College, was guest speaker at the United Nations dinner held by the Gettysburg Soroptimist Club at the Altland House, Abbottstown, Tuesday evening.

Mr. Akolekar, who has been in this country for more than eight years, is beginning his third year as instructor at Gettysburg College where he will teach a course in economic and political problems of South and Southeast Asia.

He was born and raised in India, a city of 500,000 in central India. He has master's degrees from Columbia University and the University of Virginia.

He spoke of the status of women in India and cited examples of outstanding women such as Madame Pandit who has held top diplomatic posts for her country and others who have been cabinet members or held high government positions.

Was Patriarchal Society

The majority of India's women still face the dilemma of a lack of education and the whole Indian social structure is in a state of flux, he said. In the past, India was essentially a patriarchal society in which the female child was born to be more or less held "in trust" until handed over to her husband and his family when married. She was denied the right of inheritance, the right to

EXPECT 100 PLANES FOR JAYCEE FLY-IN

Present day aviators are going to dip back into history to learn how one business concern helped save its government during the fourth annual "fly-in" to be held here Sunday under sponsorship of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

John Eppler, chairman for the aviation program by which the Jaycees hope to have pilots and their families here from throughout this area, said one of the special sights to be shown the visiting private pilots during their tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield will be the monument of the 118th Pennsylvania Volunteers—better known as the Corn Exchange Regiment.

This month marks the seventy-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the monument on the slope of Big Round Top. The Corn Exchange of Philadelphia on July 24, 1862, voted to organize a regiment to fight for the Union cause. By August 30, 1862, the 899-man regiment entered the service and fought throughout the Civil War, losing 205 killed in battle, 500 who died of wounds and disease, 253 missing in action. It secured 457 recruits during the three years of its fighting and at its final muster 139 of the original members were with the regiment.

Severest Fighting Here

At Gettysburg it had its severest fighting in the "Wheat Field" area on July 2, 1863.

September 8, 1864, 550 Philadelphians gathered here to dedicate the regiment's monument.

Eppler explained that since "The Junior Chamber is made up of young business men, and since most of the private pilots who take part in the fly-in are themselves young business men, we thought it appropriate on the 75th anniversary

POLICE PROBE MAN'S DEATH

Maryland state police today continued their investigation into what appeared to be a murder Monday near Taneytown.

At Randallstown, the troopers said Santo Rocella, 65, Taneytown R. 1, who had been found dead near his home Monday, had a bullet wound in the back of the head.

Those who found the farm worker outside his home on the George Harner farm, three miles from Taneytown toward Keymar, believed that death had been of natural causes.

Police said, however, that at the morgue in Baltimore, where the body had been removed pending search for relatives, a bullet wound was found in the back of the head. They added that an autopsy is being conducted and they expect reports on the results later today.

Neighbors in the area reported today that Rocella usually carried a large sum in bills on his person, but that no money was found when his body was discovered.

TO SERVE OUT TERM AS TOWN TREASURER

Mrs. John H. Basehore, E. Middle St., was elected borough treasurer by town council at its meeting in the engine house Monday evening.

She will fill the unexpired term of her late husband who was eulogized as a "faithful and devoted public servant" in a resolution passed by council at the same meeting expressing "our personal and the community's loss" in his death.

Basehore had served as borough treasurer for many years.

What amounted to his final report as treasurer was presented to council Monday evening by his secretary, Miss Mary Louise Shriver.

Get Monthly Figures

Prepared by her and Mrs. Basehore from the books of the late treasurer, it showed the town started August with a balance of $37,365.48. Receipts during the month totaled $21,485.91, of which $838.39 represented collections by Burgess Wilbur L. Plank; $3,674 were collections from the parking meters, $35 represented fines collected for the town by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder and $16,938.52 collections by Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert.

Expenditures during the month totaled $10,330.85 including $1,851.26 for general government; $2,983.16 protection to persons and property, $2,543.21 highways and $2,953.22 recreation board.

The balance, as of September 8, was $68,720.34.

According to the report, the town has spent $83,910.55 so far this year of which $11,357.57 was for general government; $31,049.81 protection to persons and property; $25,456.72 street repair and maintenance; $4,633.58 miscellaneous; $6,379.35 lights and $5,033.52 recreation board.

MUSSELMAN'S OPEN APPLE SAUCE PLANT

Movement of the processing portion of Pennsylvania's huge apple crop started Tuesday with the opening of applesauce operations at the C. H. Musselman Company's Gardners plant. Full production will be attained when a second shift is added later in the month. J. Henry Gageby is the plant superintendent.

Applesauce production at the company's Inwood, W. Va., plant has been in full swing since September 3, with the Biglerville plant operations on sliced apples scheduled to open next week.

After a survey of crop possibilities in other major apple producing areas and the potential on finished products, opening prices were announced as follows: U. S. 1's 2 1/2" and up, York Imperials, $2.25; mixed varieties, $2; U. S. 1's, 2 1/4" to 2 1/2", all varieties, $1; U. S. 2's, 2 1/4" up, 75c, and ciders, 50c.

Other Prices

Reported prices for Western New York are as follows: "A" varieties, U. S. 1's, 2 1/4" and up, $2.25; 2 1/2" to 2 3/4", $1.75; 2 3/4" to 3", $1.50; "B" varieties, U. S. 1's, 2 1/4" and up, $1.75; 2 1/2" to 2 3/4", $1.50; 2 3/4" to 3", $1.25; Wealthies, U. S. 1's 2 1/2" and up, $1.35; 2 1/4" to 2 1/2", 60c. No payment for 2's and culls.

Employing local help only, the Gardners and Biglerville plants provide seasonal employment for about 1,000 workers from this area. Both plants are again operating on a basic 40-hour week with time and one-half being paid to all employees who work over 40 hours per week.

CODE VIOLATORS

The following have been charged in Hanover with motor code violations: Demetrius L. Leatherman, 36, New Oxford R. 2, passing in a no passing zone; M. Fred Watson, New Oxford R. 1, reckless driving; Frances G. Reed, 32, Littlestown R. 1, stop sign violation.

ASSIGNED AT CAMP

Luther C. Harman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Charles Harman Sr., Biglerville R. 1, has been assigned to Company A, 19th Battalion, 8th Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training.

Councilman Glenn Guise declared at Monday evening's meeting of borough council at the engine house that Burgess Wilbur L. Plank and Chief of Police Jack Bartlett flaunted an action of council in establishing two lanes of traffic south on Baltimore St. on Sunday afternoons.

Guise inquired whether council should "fold up and go home." The safety committee of council, he said, had considered establishment of two lanes of traffic south on Baltimore St. on Sundays, but had decided against such a proposal and its recommendation had been sustained by council. He said that the burgess and police chief "had gone ahead despite disapproval of council. The safety committee did not meet and change its recommendation. If council's action doesn't mean anything we might as well turn everything over to someone else."

Admits No Change

Councilman George Naugle agreed that "the safety committee did not make any change in its recommendations. But I think that it will if we can provide off-street parking so that the business people in the center of town have a fair chance. I think the two-lane program worked well, but we should do it only if we can provide parking for those who want to park. By next spring I think we will have that parking available."

Plank claimed the policy had worked out well in handling the flow of traffic through Lincoln Square. Bartlett asked the painting of lines on Baltimore St. to expedite traffic from the square.

A lengthy discussion followed on the use of policemen to protect children crossing streets en route to and leaving school. Councilman Philip M. Jones asked for a policeman at the Broadway and Carlisle St. crossing. Burgess Plank said there were a number of other crossings where parents were asking policemen "and it is hard to determine where to stop."

He said the cost of an extra policeman was "about $50 a month." He suggested that "we try a program similar to Hanover where parents volunteer to guard crossings and the only expense to the town is the provision of a partial uniform for the volunteers."

Council President Oyler referred the matter to the "burgess and highway committee."

The finance committee was asked to study a proposal that the wages of borough police be increased in line with the salaries paid other nearby communities.

Gettysburg's base pay is $3,300 a year for regular police and $1.10 an hour for part time police. Letters from Hanover, Carlisle, Mechanicsburg and a number of other nearby communities read at the meeting showed salaries there average $4,000 or more per year and pay of extra police was from $1.25 to $1.35 an hour. Council indicated the finance committee should at the same time study a possible pay increase for the highway department workers as well.

WILL PROVIDE $2,500 ROAD DAMAGES HERE

The Adams County Commissioners at a meeting this morning in the court house voted to provide $2,500 from liquid fuel tax funds toward damages anticipated in connection with the construction of the "Jack's Mountain Rd." next spring.

James Kump, state highway department representative, told the commissioners the state plans to construct a 22-foot-wide road for a distance of 14,862 feet from the Zora Rd. to the Sunshine Trail across the top of Jack's Mountain following generally the present stone road.

Kump said it is expected that damages will total about $46,000, with the state paying all over the $2,500 allocated by the county as its share. He stated the state anticipates starting the work next spring.

The commissioners voted to engage an architect to determine what, if anything, can be done to overcome noise entering the court room from the streets. Judge W. C. Sheely, meeting with the commissioners this morning, added his agreement to the need to eliminate the noise.

After some discussion it was decided to return a prisoner in the Allegheny County Workhouse to Adams County to undergo surgery. Deputy sheriffs will guard him during his hospitalization.

Civil Defense, public welfare and county planning and zoning were three top subjects at the state association of county commissioners conventions held at Pittsburgh August 31 to September 2, the commissioners reported today. They, Attorney Charles W. Wolf, their solicitor and Crosby N. Hartzell, clerk, attended.

CANDIDATES TO GIVE VIEWS ON COUNTY HOME

Candidates will be invited to attend the October meeting of the Adams County Home Auxiliary to present their views on the new county home, it was decided Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the auxiliary at the county home.

Mrs. Clarence C. Smith was named membership chairman to serve until the election of auxiliary officers in December. She fills the vacancy caused by the resignation last month of Mrs. Albert Blackburn.

A donation of $25.55 was received from the Manufacturers' Light and Heat Co. following a demonstration meeting held at the gas company by the auxiliary last month.

$50 Sale Profits

Profits of $50 were reported from a rummage sale held last Saturday. Mrs. Charles Kuhn reported. Other members of her committee were Mrs. Mervin Murray, Mrs. Katharine Trostle, Mrs. Jeannette Slusser, Mrs. Carol Carey, Mrs. Walter Powell, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Glenn Hartman and Mrs. Ivan Breighner.

Reports showed that all bed patients have been given a hair trim.

Mrs. W. E. Jordan reported quantities of fresh fruit had been donated to the county home by fruit growers and other individuals and "the guest are most appreciative. We have been able to freeze a large quantity so we will have fresh fruit many times during the winter."

Rev. Harry Fehl presided at the auxiliary meeting in the absence of President Rev. Dr. H. W. Sternat who was unable to be present because of a funeral.

CRUM AWAITS 2 SENTENCES

Robert L. Crum, Biglerville R. 2, is in the Adams County Jail awaiting his appearance before court on two larceny counts to both of which he signed guilty pleas before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Tuesday.

In one case Crum was charged by state police along with Robert L. Carson with larceny of gasoline from Rebecca E. Sachs, Butler Twp. The theft occurred between November 11 and 27 last year. Police charged that 100 gallons, valued at $24, were taken.

In the other case, Crum was charged along with four other defendants with burglary and larceny at the Sanders Brothers' Store, Keckler's Hill, Cumberland Twp., February 28, 1958. Merchandise valued at $60 was taken.

When the informations were filed, Crum was in the House of Correction at Jessup, Md., and a detainee was placed against him there. Tuesday when he was due for release, he signed waivers of extradition and was brought here by the sheriff for arraignment before Snyder.

Carson was sentenced by the Adams County court on the charge May 14. He was given a suspended sentence, placed on probation for six months and ordered to make restitution of $24.30 and pay the costs.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Guffey, Earle, Haines Speak At Huge Rally: Success of the democratic state and local tickets at the November election was freely predicted by speakers at a county-wide democratic rally at Arendtsville Union park, Saturday evening. Approximately 1,500 persons were in attendance.

J. Walter Kugler, of Liberty township who last Friday evening was elected democratic county chairman, opened the meeting and introduced W. Clarence Sheely Esq., of Gettysburg, who presided and complimented Louis W. Wagaman, clerk of the county commissioners and Miss Edna Eicholtz, president of the democratic women's club, for the success of the picnic and rally.

The principal speakers were Harry L. Haines, member of congress from the York-Adams-Franklin district and candidate for re-election; Joseph F. Guffey, Pittsburgh, candidate for United States Senator, and George H. Earle, Philadelphia, candidate for governor.

Mr. Guffey asserted that harmony reigns in the democratic party of Pennsylvania this year under the leadership of David L. Lawrence, state chairman.

Jacobs-Redding Wedding Is Solemnized Here Monday: A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church Monday morning when Miss Eleanor Ann Redding and William F. Jacobs were married at a nuptial high mass at 8 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by their pastor, Rev. Father Mark E. Stock, before a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The bride had as her bridesmaid her sister, Miss Frances Redding. The best man was the brother of the groom, Charles Jacobs.

Firemen Elect Fairfield Man As President: Officers were elected, the place for next year's convention was chosen, and several addresses were given at the Monday afternoon business session of the thirteenth annual convention of the Adams county firemen's association at Barlow.

S. L. Allison, of Fairfield, prothonotary of Adams county, was elected president of the association after the delegation adopted new bylaws providing that a president can serve only two terms.

George A. McClellan, of Gettysburg, whom Mr. Allison succeeds as president, has served two terms in office.

Bonneauville was chosen as the place for next year's annual convention.

Civil War Vet To Be 98 Years Old Wednesday: Adam Bucher, oldest Civil war veteran in Adams county, will observe his ninety-eighth birthday anniversary at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bucher, Cashtown, Wednesday.

Although confined to bed on account of paralysis in his feet, Mr. Bucher enjoys good health, sits up in bed and enjoys smoking cigars.

Western Rodeo Thrills To Be Shown At Fair: "Ride 'em Cowboy!"

This will be the by-word during the entertainment programs every afternoon and evening at the 1959 South Mountain Fair which opens in the Arendtsville Union park next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock and continues until midnight Saturday, September 15.

The Harry Taylor Rodeo company has been engaged to furnish the free entertainment during the four-day and three-night entertainment.

Rodeo (pronounced "ro-day-o") with the emphasis on the second syllable) is the Mexican word for roundup, or gathering of cattle on open ranges. It has become a spectacle that is gaining world fame as the typical American western entertainment.

Today's Talk

ON THINKING

There is nothing great in this world that thinking didn't make it so. Behind all achievement have been dreams and plans. Great things don't "just happen." Long thought brings them to pass. "I'll think it over" is a familiar statement. When we do think it over, using our best judgment, we are saved from many an error.

Thinking is fuel to the mind. Never allow that fuel to run out! It's like having the woodbox always full—before gas, oil, and electricity took its place. The efficient mind is a wonderful creation. Its earning capacity is often amazing. Many a man has had to think his way out of a difficult position.

A single hour each day devoted to thinking might bring forth miracles. Ideas are life. Always first in command. They have moved the world, and will continue to do so, no matter even if misused. Life is a sifting process, anyway. Enough of the good in ideas is preserved for the late thinkers, the ones who respect order and freedom of expression. We must never surrender the privilege of thinking as we please. It's our life to make the most of it.

I like to read stimulating books. Books that make me think. We can school ourselves to any procedure in life if we use that God-given privilege to think for ourselves, and tie to man's ideas only if they fit into our form of life. No one can corral our thoughts so long as we are master of them.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Love and Friendship"

Just Folks

THE VALUE OF CHEER

When a fellow's up against it
And the going's mighty tough,
When the best strength he can summon
Doesn't seem to be enough
Just to make the grade he's trying,
Then his soul is always stirred
If some chap who's on the side lines
Only speaks a cheering word.

When his every nerve he's straining
Just to keep his head above
The grim waters of disaster,
And perhaps he's thinking of
The uselessness of trying,
He'll come back in fighting style
If upon the shore of safety
Some one cheers him with a smile.

It may be that he is sinking,
But if only he can see
Some one willing to assist him,
One who seems to care, then
He will fake heart and keep on fighting.
But man's strength is quickly gone
If no one is near to cheer him
And there's none to urge him on.

Caution Has Paid Off For Khrushchev In Strife In USSR; Takes Care Of Self

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

"If you live among dogs," says Nikita Sergeyevich Khrushchev, who is fond of proverbs, "keep a stick with you."

For him, the cautious philosophy paid off. The 220-pound bundle of energy who heads for the United States next week for the announced purpose of making friends never had many of them at home. A Communist politician on the way up couldn't afford friends.

It was a close call for Khrushchev and other members of Stalin's inner circle early in 1953. In the words of an American diplomat, old Stalin had "reached for the bottle again." A new blood purge seemed inevitable. Nobody was safe.

Nudged Others Aside
Stalin, suspecting somebody planned to rub him out in his declining years, cooked up a fantastic tale of a plot by doctors, most of them Jewish, to poison leading Soviet figures, including himself. Moscow had an ugly sense of foreboding.

Luckily for most concerned — possibly it was more than coincidence — Stalin died in March. Georgi M. Malenkov became premier and party leader, the new boss. But he was not strong enough to rule. Within a few weeks the irrepressible Khrushchev nudged Malenkov out of the party leadership. The doctor's plot was denounced as a grim hoax.

Nikita Khrushchev at last was on his way to the top.

Beria Was Shot
Once secret police chief Lavrenty Beria was safely lodged in a Lubyanka prison cell, awaiting the final bullet, and the police organization was purged of tens of thousands of its more dangerous members, Khrushchev was free to throw his considerable weight around. He did.

With his new post as first party secretary formally approved, Khrushchev promptly denounced the directors of Soviet agriculture for the sorry mess presented by that phase of the economy.

Beria was shot and then given a trial as an American spy. The Russian in the street grinned broadly. Things would be better. And Khrushchev climbed higher. By 1955 he was able to blame Malenkov for Soviet farming woes and forced him to quit as premier with an abject confession of failure. Nikolai Bulganin, goateed and courtly political-military figure, became premier.

Denounced Stalin
When Stalin's body had been safely encased in a gaudy Red Square tomb for three years, Khrushchev finally was strong enough to denounce him to other Communists as a barbarian torturer and murderer, a military imbecile who nearly brought the nation to disaster.

Khrushchev and the other top leaders may have owed their lives to an alliance with the military and the war hero, Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov. In 1956 Khrushchev hailed Zhukov as a superb general who had been maligned and exiled by Stalin.

In 1957, the marshal was exiled by Khrushchev, who said he had "violated Leninist principles."

Can Rely On No One
Then the time finally came when Bulganin was to be disgraced. He was forced to confess he had engaged in criminal activity with the anti-party group of Malenkov, Lazar Kaganovich and V. M. Molotov. Stalin's right hand in foreign affairs, Bulganin felt obliged to characterize Malenkov as a plotter, Molotov as an ignoramus and Kaganovich as an old windbag.

But Stalin himself was not entirely dead. Some aspects of Stalinism still were necessary, particularly in the world movement. When it came to questions of what is called the inevitable victory of world communism, announced Khrushchev, he and all Communists were still "good Stalinists."

But he still ruled cautiously. He still had enemies. And, at the lonely pinnacle, he probably could rely on nobody as a real friend.

State To Get Education Survey

By DICK WEEGHMAN

HARRISBURG (AP) — Despite the steel strike and serious unemployment, Pennsylvania will get about $121,588 less federal aid for its school lunch program this year.

The Commonwealth's public schools expect a record high of over a half million youngsters to participate in the lunch program during the school year. Many of the youngsters will come from families hard-hit by either the strike or general unemployment.

However, state officials expect increased grants of federal surplus foods will offset some of the loss of federal money so school children may not have to pay more for their meals.

Students Pay Most

This year, as last, the students will foot most of the bill. Last year the figure totaled about $22,097,000. Civic groups donated some $10,478,000, while the federal government added $3,976,810, net counting food grants.

This worked out to about 26 cents of an average 40-cent meal paid by the student, with about 5 cents contributed by the federal government in cash and about 9 cents more in surplus foods.

The state itself contributes no money except for administration of the program, and local school districts paid about 1½ millions for administration and supervision.

Though the Commonwealth is going to have its federal school lunch subsidy trimmed, the U. S. Government is allocating some 10 million dollars more for the program across the country—a total of 110 million dollars.

Two Factors

Pennsylvania's subsidy is being trimmed because of two factors used in figuring federal contributions — the school population has not increased as rapidly as the rest of the nation, but on the other hand the per capita income has risen more rapidly.

This data is computed from figures two years old and could therefore not account for such factors as the steel strike, which has affected Pennsylvania more severely than many other states.

Last year the program fed 477,630 students. Some 549,486 are expected this year.

An additional $1,029,000 in federal money is expected to be paid to private and parochial schools in this state this year for their lunch programs.

BRAZILIAN ATHLETE IS FOUND DEAD

NAPERVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Police sought Tuesday to establish a motive in the gunshot death of a Brazilian athlete whose body was found on a lawn of a small college campus.

Ronaldo Duncan Arantes, 26, of Rio de Janeiro, a member of Brazil's rowing team in the third Pan-American Games, had been shot through the heart.

Police speculated he was shot while grappling with an armed bandit.

"We are proceeding with an investigation of homicide, but we are not ruling out the possibility of suicide," said William J. Bauer, state's attorney for Du Page County.

The young man's body lay Monday on a lawn near Geiger Hall on the North Central College campus where the Brazilian team resided during the games.

Had Purchased Gun
The pockets of his official team jacket were torn, and only 60 cents were found in them. His wallet, containing $7, was found in his dormitory room.

The dead man's brother, Romulo, coach of the rowing team, said his brother had brought $2-00 from Brazil to purchase firearms.

Bauer said police were seeking a dark-complexioned man described by an Aurora, Ill., sporting goods dealer. The merchant said the unidentified man was with Duncan when the athlete purchased a .38 caliber gun Aug. 26.

A new .38 caliber gun lay near the body. The state's attorney said the serial number on the gun was not the number recorded by the sporting goods dealer in the transaction with Duncan.

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — A search was under way Tuesday for passengers of a motorboat which burned and sank in east-central Philippine waters Saturday afternoon, reportedly with 50 persons aboard. Constabulary headquarters said the bodies of four persons had been recovered.

DISTAFF SHOW WILL EXPLORE WOMAN'S VIEW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Last May CBS made a startling discovery which may yet prove to be television-shaking: the thinking woman.

TV already had invented the thinking man, or at least a sponsor had. The distaff discovery came about when somebody had the idea of putting together a show called "Woman!" as a sort of taped daytime special dedicated to a thoughtful, literate exploration of the pros and cons of teenage marriage.

Well, sir, it was presented with considerable fanfare on a weekday afternoon spot normally devoted to a covey of soap operas and audience participation games and reruns. When it turned up with fine reviews and even better audience ratings, the folks at CBS were as excited as if they'd discovered the wheel.

Plan Specials

Now a number of "Woman!" specials are in the works, the first of which is dedicated to the question "Is the American Woman Losing Her Femininity?" It will dislodge a marriage counseling program, "For Better or Worse," and Art Linkletter's "House Party" on Thursday, Sept. 17 (2-3 p.m. EDT) unless Nikita Khrushchev's visit postpones it. While the question itself is one which has been thoroughly explored in book, magazine and newspaper form, it remains stimulating and controversial.

CBS has brought in Esther Williams to preside over the discussion. The slim, pretty film star is, in her own right, a dramatic example of this particular "Woman!" question of the show. Esther started out as a champion swimmer, moved on to become a big box-office film star and is working president of a successful swimming pool manufacturing company. She is also the mother of three children—and informs you graciously but firmly: "I am one of the most feminine women in the world!"

In town to wrap up the final details of the show, Miss Williams insists that, while there can be no definite answer to the question raised by the show, it surely will produce interesting dinner-time conversation in a lot of American homes that night.

Seek Man For Attacking Girl

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police searched North Philadelphia Tuesday for a young man who reportedly raped a 10-year-old girl after forcing her into an old, abandoned house.

The little girl, of suburban Havertown, was visiting her grandmother in the Kensington section of the city Monday and had gone to the store for her.

As she walked home carrying a bag of groceries a man approached her and asked her to retrieve a package for him from a vacant lot, the girl said. When she hesitated, he drew a knife, she related, and made her go with him into the abandoned house.

The child said she was forced to undress, was assaulted several times and was told to count to a thousand before leaving the house.

EARLY WYNN GARNERS 19TH WIN OF SEASON

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago's White Sox set off on their last long road trip today, packing a five-game lead with 16 to play. And that chuckle in the background is Early Wynn—the guy who was too old to be much help in the American League pennant race.

It was spring when most of the guys who pick the pennant winners made that mistake. Casey Stengel and his New York Yankees were going to win again in the AL. The White Sox, with Wynn drawing spot assignments at most, might finish second, but more likely would come in third, behind Detroit or Cleveland.

Now it's September and Wynn, at 39 years, eight months and three days, has won 19, tops in the AL, and has beaten every club in the league for the first time since 1936.

Third In Row
He did it Tuesday night, winning his third in a row with a 3-2, 10-inning decision over Kansas City. It was the only game scheduled in the majors.

It also was the White Sox' 86th victory—eliminating all the other clubs except second-place Cleveland and officially ending the Yankees' run as champions.

The seventh-place A's, who now have lost 11 in a row, were the only club Wynn hadn't beaten this season. Fact is, they had whipped him three times this year.

They almost got him this time, too. Shut out on three singles for eight innings, the A's scored twice in the ninth for a 2-1 lead before the White Sox tied it and then put it away in the 10th for their 33rd victory in 43 one-run decisions and their 12th in 14 extra-inning games.

The White Sox open a nine-game trip through the East with Bob Shaw (14-6) facing Washington's Tex Clevenger (7-3) tonight. The Indians are at Baltimore for a two-night doubleheader, with Jack Harshman (5-9) and Jim Perry (10-7) opposing the Orioles' Milt Pappas (14-7) and Hec Brown (9-7).

Another Injury For Nittany Lions

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State football coach Rip Engle figured his biggest problem this year would be finding adequate substitutes at the center and linebacker positions.

His problem became critical Tuesday with the disclosure that regular center Wayne Berfield suffered a broken right arm and probably will be out half the season. Four to six weeks at the earliest was the verdict by the team physician.

Berfield, a junior from Williamsport, was the second serious injury in last Saturday's scrimmage. Dennis Schaeffer, reserve fullback, suffered a shoulder dislocation which will cause him to miss the season opener Sept. 19 at Missouri.

Big League To Meet Tonight

A meeting of all managers and sponsors of the Big League will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the VFW.

President Patrick McDermitt has requested full representation at the meeting.

Members of the league teams during the past season will be taken to Baltimore Saturday to attend the Orioles-Chicago White Sox game. The players will meet at Swope's Service Station, Carlisle St., at 11 a.m. at which time they will board a bus for the trip.

Lenny Moore's Fingers Are Cut

WESTMINSTER, Md. (AP)—The champion Baltimore Colts of the National Football League were shocked by the news their all-pro halfback, Lenny Moore, suffered cuts on three fingers in a household accident. Moore's hand was cut when he tried to take a knife away from his young son.

No tendons were affected, but the team physician said stitches would be required. The doctor said he could not tell if Moore would be available for the Colts' exhibition against Philadelphia Sunday.

Betsy Rawls Heads Atlanta Open Field

ATLANTA (AP)—Betsy Rawls heads a strong field of professionals who will compete in the Atlanta Women's Open next week. The Spartanburg, S.C., swinger has won nine tournaments and more than $20,000 this year.

The 72-hole medal play tourney runs Thursday through Sunday and carries a $7,500 purse.

WARRIOR-OWL SERIES EVEN; 5 WINS EACH

When the Gettysburg High Warriors host Westminster here Friday evening at 8 o'clock it will mark the 11th football engagement between the schools.

The honors are all even at five games each.

The Warriors won the first five games as follows: 1948, 47-0; 1949, 12-0; 1950, 13-0; 1952, 25-0, and 1953, 13-0. Since that string it has been all Westminster.

Owl victories were hung up in 1954, 19-14; 1955, 13-12; 1956, 12-0; 1957, 25-13, and last year, 20-13. This year Coach Herb Ruby has another rugged and experienced outfit at Westminster. The Owls are expected to start a letterman at each position.

Coach Don Young and his assistants, Carl Schoenborn and Pat Kelly, have been sending their Warrior squad through stiff drills daily in preparation for one of their toughest opponents of the campaign.

PGA PICKS 10 FOR RYDER CUP

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The PGA has formally named the 10 top U.S. golfers to try to get the Ryder Cup back from the British. The men were picked Tuesday for the matches Nov. 7-8 in Palm Desert, Calif.

All but one of the 10 will compete in the Dallas Open starting here Friday.

Snead: Heads List

Veterans on the squad are Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Jack Burke Jr. of Klamath Lake, N.Y.; Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla.; Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y.; Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., and Art Wall of Pocono Manor, Pa.

Newcomers are Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N.C.; Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla.; Bob Rosburg of Napa, Calif.; and Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C.

PENNANT EDGE FAVORS GIANTS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Power and pitching furnish the keys to success or failure as the National League leading San Francisco Giants race in the stretch with 15 of their magic number.

With 17 games remaining, 12 of them during this final home stand, San Francisco holds a three-game lead over both Milwaukee and Los Angeles.

So any combination of Giants victories and Milwaukee or Los Angeles losses adding up to 15 would bring the pennant.

During the home stand the San Franciscans must meet their three closest competitors starting today with the Pittsburgh Pirates and winding up next week with two games against Milwaukee and three against the Dodgers.

So Manager Bill Rigney carefully checks his pitching rotation and hopes the power will bust loose.

BUCS BUY HURLER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates purchased right-handed pitcher Dick Hall from their Salt Lake City club in the Pacific Coast League. He will report to the Pirates at the close of the PCL season Sept. 13.

The former Phi Beta Kappa from Swarthmore College is the PCL's top hurler. He leads in victories with an 18-4 log, earned run average 1.75, strikeouts 108 and completed games with 19. Hall, 29, now resides in Mexico.

Pitching — Early Wynn, White Sox, won his 19th, tops in the American League, allowed only 6 hits, walked none and struck out 4 in 3-2, 10-inning victory over the A's.

Hitting — Luis Aparicio, White Sox, singled and scored first run, then drove in the tie-breaking run with his third single for 3-2, 10-inning decision over the A's.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Dennis Schaeffer, second string fullback from Boyertown, probably will miss Penn State's football opener at Missouri Sept. 19.

Coach Rip Engle disclosed Monday that Schaeffer, a promising sophomore, suffered a shoulder dislocation in a scrimmage last Saturday. Sam Sobczak, junior halfback from DuBois, was switched into Schaeffer's slot.

Engle also announced that the work of sophomore back Harry Finleton in Saturday's scrimmage had earned him a shot at a quarterback berth.

OLMEDO HAS MUCH AT STAKE IN MATCHES

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—If Alex Olmedo does not win the National Tennis championship, it could cost him a bundle of money.

How much? Only Jack Kramer knows that, and it won't come out until Alex is graduated from Southern California next January. Alex meets young Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, today in a fourth-round match and the heat is on him. Still, outwardly he is as calm as though he were playing a weekend match in a local club.

Pressure Rough

"The pressure was rough in Davis Cup play," he admitted before taking on McKinley. "In the singles, you get a chance to build up your game with some easy early matches."

"That's what I needed. I think I have a pretty good chance."

Before the cup play, Olmedo was a prime prospect for Kramer's three-ring pro circus. But he lost a single match and dropped the doubles with Earl Buchholz and his stock took a nosedive.

The talk started at the $100,000 mark, but each time Alex gets beaten, it goes down. After the National, there is no other tournament in which to salvage any prestige.

While Olmedo might have his troubles with McKinley, Neale Fraser, the Aussies' one-man gang, had a date with unheralded Rudy Hernandez of Detroit. Fraser is seeded No. 2 behind Olmedo, who got his top ranking on the basis of his Australian and Wimbledon championships.

Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, No. 3, and Olmedo's cup teammate, plays Aussie second-liner Bob Mark, while veteran Vic Seixas is favored over National Clay Courts ruler Tut Bartenz of Dallas.

All Australians—Roy Emerson and Rod Laver—gained their quarterfinal brackets Tuesday. Emerson, seeded No. 8, eliminated Bill Bond, 17, of La Jolla, Calif., 6-2, 13-11, 6-2. Laver polished off NCAA champion Whitney Reed of San Jose State, 6-1, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. Laver is seeded No. 4.

In the women's division, Dorothy Head Knobe of Panama upset eight-seeded Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif., 6-2, 6-2 to advance to the quarter-finals.

LANDIS STREAK KEEPS SOX ON TOP OF LEAGUE

By JOE MOOSHL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The go-go Chicago White Sox, heading for the American League pennant, have a couple of real valuable players in shortstop Luis Aparicio and second baseman Nellie Fox.

But don't forget the guy who patrols the outer garden, says Manager Al Lopez.

He is center fielder Jim Landis, one of the hottest hitters in the majors. Landis has been a main factor in Chicago's drive to a five-game lead in the American League pennant race.

Average Moves Up

Landis was batting a feeble .125 in May. Since then he has hit safely in 62 of 87 games and lifted his average to a respectable .280. He has been batting at a .397 clip the last 17 games.

Last year Landis got hot in June and helped pull the Sox from last place to second.

Lopez, despite criticism when Landis was in a slump, has kept the 25-year-old outfielder playing regularly.

BRAVES' HOPE ARE ON SPAHN

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The old left-handed baseball doctor, Warren Spahn, will lug his satchel full of sliders, sinkers and curve balls to the mound tonight for the Milwaukee Braves.

It will be up to the 38-year-old veteran to keep alive Braves' hopes for a third straight National League pennant and to perform the operation that will secure triumph No. 4 in what the Milwaukee players hope will be a long victory string.

The Braves have insisted that a winning streak will carry them out of a second-place tie with the Los Angeles Dodgers and past the San Francisco Giants, first by three games. Any faltering in the last big home series will make next week's West Coast four just another road swing. The long streak had eluded the Braves all season. They've never been able to tie together more than six victories.

Spahn will face one of his favorite victims, the St. Louis Cardinals. He has a record of 54-31 against the Cards.

Sinsyoku is the name of the street in Tokyo which corresponds to New York's Broadway as the center of theaters and night clubs.

WEEB EWANK CORRECTING COLT FLAWS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Allentown has finished second in the Eastern League, but the Sox have no time to be happy about it.

The Sox defeated Williamsport 6-1 in a one-game playoff Tuesday night to decide second place. The two teams open a best-of-five semifinal playoff tonight in Allentown.

They had finished in a tie for second, four games behind Springfield, when the season ended Monday night.

The pennant-winning Giants began their best-of-five semifinal playoff Tuesday night against fourth-place Binghamton with a 4-2 victory at Springfield.

It was the Giants ninth consecutive victory and Julio Navarro's seventh. He pitched a seven-hitter. Springfield scored its winning runs in the seventh when Don Strickchuffed home a run and Robin Coffman brought one in with a sacrifice fly. Tom Tresh drove in both Binghamton runs with a triple in the fourth.

With No. 2 signal-caller George Shaw peddled to the New York Giants, Ewank has only defensive specialists Andy Nelson and Ray Brown as insurance against an injury to Unitas, who had to sit out a couple of key games during the 1958 campaign with fractured ribs.

Tuesday Ewank took the initial steps to prepare for such an eventuality and rectify what could become a dangerous situation.

Step No. 1 is the assigning of Brown, who played offensively in college at Mississippi, to the starting quarterback role for Sunday's meeting with the Eagles at Philadelphia. Nelson will be given a thorough test for the remainder of the exhibition schedule.

Step No. 2 concerns shoring up the Colts pass protection. After reviewing films of Baltimore's last outing against Pittsburgh, Ewank said the team's pass protection "wasn't good enough," and cautioned: "It had better improve."

In the Green Bay camp, new coach Vince Lombardi learned that former All-American end Ron Kramer is expected out of service shortly and will rejoin the Packers.

Redskins Bolster Defense
Lombardi also said Alex Hawkins, former South Carolina stand-out, likely will draw the starting halfback assignment for the Packers' nationally televised game with Washington at Winston-Salem, N.C., Saturday night.

The Redskins, meanwhile, bolstered their defensive backfield by buying halfback Bill Stits from San Francisco. The 'Skins gave up a draft choice to get the five-year veteran.

The Giant strimmed their roster to 44, dropping Soph halfback Don Maynard, used almost exclusively on running back punts last year; defensive half Sid Williams, and defensive end Jon Jelacic.

Shaw Says Eagles Have Progressed

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Coach Buck Shaw of the Philadelphia Eagles says his National Football League club has progressed well despite three losses in four exhibition games.

"There still are a few kinks to be worked out," Shaw said yesterday as the Eagles prepared for their fifth exhibition against the champion Baltimore Colts Sunday at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Iowa Announces New, Better Tests To Replace CEEB Exam

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

A new testing program for college-bound high school seniors was announced today by the University of Iowa. It marks the real challenge to the long-established but often criticized College Entrance Examination Board.

Iowa's American College Testing program will get under way in November with between 200 and 500 participating colleges and universities. Like the older program, it will help the colleges determine in advance which students are qualified for admission.

The CEEB tests are administered for about 200 colleges, with less than 20 per cent of the nation's total college enrollment. CEEB was established in 1901.

Growing Criticism

In recent years there has been a growing criticism of CEEB and of the Educational Testing Service which it helped establish in 1947. ETS prepares and scores the college board tests, as well as many other types of examinations.

Dr. E. F. Lindquist, director of the Iowa program, said the new system will be more comprehensive than the college boards, will be cheaper, and the competition will result in an "improvement of the ETS tests. America's schools will get more for their money."

Here is a comparison of the two systems:

Different Costs

College boards charge each high school pupil $6 for a scholastic aptitude test. Until this year it was $7. The high school is also charged a dime for each test given. A further test, to determine advance placement, costs the student another $9.

ACT will charge each student $3, and levy no charge against the high school. The Iowa test covers both scholastic aptitude and advance placement. It is also designed to provide guidelines for student counselors and to serve as a basis for the granting of scholarships and loans.

CEEB provides the participating colleges with only two scores — mathematics and one which reflects word knowledge and reading ability. No reports are made to the student or to the high school.

The Iowa program will give the colleges four scores — English, mathematics, science and social studies. It will also tell the pupil his score, in an interpretive leaflet, and report the score to the high school. When the pupils become college freshmen, their college grades will be reported back to the high schools to help the schools judge their own teaching programs.

Lindquist sees in the new testing program the only salvation for some colleges where entering students now have to take up to 18 hours of tests the first week they are on the campus. This is bad enough now, he says, and will be vastly worse when the number of college freshmen jumps from 711,000 this year to an estimated 1,267,000 in 1969.

BE CHOOSY ON PENCILS

Watch that pencil! It could be the wrong one for your child.

There are 350 different kinds of pencils, many of them designed for different purposes. The right choice could make a difference in Susie or Johnny's report card.

For instance, a jumbo pencil is especially made for kindergarten and first grade students. Tests have shown the smaller children are more able to grasp the oversized pencil than the thin types, which may cramp tiny fingers.

The familiar yellow general-use pencil comes in six degrees of hardness of lead and youngsters should be given a No. 1 or 2, the softest of the lot. These softer leads write a clearer, heavier line, are easier to write and see and help prevent eye strain.

You can find numbers indicating pencil lead hardness imprinted next to the manufacturer's name. The harder the lead, the higher the number.

Pencils are big business and only industry uses more of them than school children.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — L'Osservatore Romano, in a sharp attack on beauty contests, describes them as "zoological market exhibits." The vatican newspaper in its daily column of comment Monday also criticized motion pictures in which nudity rather than artistic ability is a means to success.

YORK, England (AP) — Metal-lined clothes for men and women were forecast here as future fashion by textile expert Howard Rees who unrolled a shimmering length of newly developed aluminum foil cloth before the British Assn. for the Advancement of Science.

The foil, one-quarter of one-thousandth of an inch thick, is coated on one side of the cloth. "With the metal side inward you should keep warm," Rees said. "Reversed you would keep cool."

HAMMERSTEIN WALKS MILES AS HE WRITES NEW BALLADS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Some jobs get harder the longer you work at them, no matter how skilled you become.

It is that way with Oscar Hammerstein II, playwright, producer and lyricist.

After 50 musical plays and a thousand songs in 40 years, he finds that song No. 1,001 as elusive to pin down as when he began back in 1919.

Pacer When He Works

He can be seen striding back and forth on the second-floor porch of his 200-year-old Bucks County, Pa., farmhouse.

"I'm a pacer when I work," said Hammerstein, who is writing the last of 14 lyrics for his latest opus with composer Richard Rodgers, the life story of Maria von Trapp of the famous Austrian singing family.

"It's hard work. I walk miles and miles sometimes before I get a phrase."

100 Sheets Of Notes

"I don't know of any art form that requires simplicity more than a song does. But you have to wade through a lot of nonessential details to get on the right road," Hammerstein, who started out as a lawyer, jots down words and ideas on a pad of long, lined yellow paper at an antique stand-up desk.

To turn out a single song recently he used up 100 sheets of paper while working every day for more than four weeks.

Wants To Go On

At 64—he looks a rugged, well-preserved 50—he has turned out enough hits to win immortality. But he says he wants to go on writing as long as he can find

FINDS WIFE, 2 DAUGHTERS FATALLY SHOT

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Glen C. Sechrist, a deputy game warden, had reason to feel proud as he left for work Tuesday morning.

He had moved his wife, Doris, 31, and their two young daughters into a new home last week just outside this central Pennsylvania community.

Sechrist and his wife had done most of the construction work. When he left the house the daughters, Deborah, 9, and Diane, 5, were still in bed. Deborah would be getting up soon for her first day back at school.

No Notes, No Motive

Sechrist returned home late in the afternoon. The house was silent.

In the children's bedroom he found his wife lying on the floor, the girls still in their beds — all shot to death.

Dr. Earl R. Miller, Lycoming County coroner, said Mrs. Sechrist had used her husband's 38 caliber revolver to kill her daughters, and then commit suicide.

There were no notes, police said, no apparent motive.

Dr. Miller said Mrs. Sechrist had no history of illness.

Flees Rebels

new themes.

"Real showmen are like gamblers," he said. "They ride with the good and bad."

"Success in the theater is gained by departing from the beaten path, and this is achieved chiefly by the so-called commercial managers, writers and actors," he said.

Most Important

Unchanged by success, Hammerstein likes chess, baseball, tennis, a swim every morning and the pleasures of family life. He and his wife have 11 grandchildren.

His friendliness and tolerant optimism have made him one of the best-loved men in show business.

"I recognize the imperfections of life," he said. "The most important thing in living is to recognize the imperfection of human beings."

"Our assumption that we are more civilized than we really are makes us too disappointed in ourselves. We fight too much to prove that what we don't know is so."

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats could have roared like tigers. Instead they just moaned. President Eisenhower kept them cowed all year.

Thanks to the 1958 elections, they took over the Capitol with the biggest majorities in both houses since early New Deal days. But they became pretty much yes-men for the President.

From this Congress now reaching an end Eisenhower got so much he wanted that he probably won't complain. There are five explanations for his getting the opposition party to eat out of his hand:

Aggressive Leadership

1. His unexpected, aggressive leadership.
2. The new Republican leaders in both House and Senate.
3. The Democrats' failure to act consistently as a party. When it suited them, Southern Democrats split off and teamed up with the Republicans.

4. The Democratic leaders—Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn, both of Texas—are conservative, middle-of-the-road managers without fire.

5. There were no stinging issues except one which Eisenhower fashioned into a club for hitting the Democrats: inflation.

Instead of showing a diminishing interest and influence — as might be expected of a president finishing his second and last term — Eisenhower became increasingly active.

Ike Remains Popular

Individual Republicans in Congress may disagree with Eisenhower, as they do. But the Republicans as a party took a tremendous beating in the 1958 elections while Eisenhower remained enormously popular.

Without him, they had no policy of their own. To fight him in 1959 might have meant worse disaster in the 1960 elections. As a group they have gone along with him this year.

At the start of this Congress

U. N. GROUP TO START WORK ON LAOS TODAY

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N.'s new fact-finding group began drafting plans today for an urgent on-the-spot inquiry into the situation in troubled Laos.

The four-nation subcommittee called a private meeting for 11 a.m. EST—less than 12 hours after the Security Council brushed aside an attempted Soviet veto and decided to arrange a U.N. investigation.

Representatives of the four submoned to the office of the council president, Ambassador Egidio Ortona of Italy, to work out plans for an early departure.

Russia Voted "No"

Italy is one of the countries on the fact-finding group. The others are Argentina, Japan and Tunisia. The council's resolution creating the subcommittee was sponsored by the United States, Britain and France. They are all members of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO), which has declared Laos in its defense area.

The plan was adopted by a vote of 10 to 1, with the Soviet Union casting the lone dissent.

The vote came five minutes after midnight toward the end of an emergency session that began on Labor Day afternoon and stretched through eight hours of talk and a dinner break.

Pa. Delegation Favors New Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania representatives voted 23-7 Tuesday in favor of a new public works bill to replace the one vetoed recently by President Eisenhower. The $1,185,309,000 measure passed the House 302-93.

Voting against the measure were seven Pennsylvania Republicans: Paul B. Dague, John A. LaFore Jr., William H. Milliken Jr., Walter M. Mumma, John P. Saylor, Richard Simpson and James E. Van Zandt.

DELAWARE WILL OBEY RULE ON INTEGRATION

By LEE LINDER

DOVER, Del. (AP)—The mixing of white and Negro pupils in first grade classes of Delaware's public schools begins today. This gradual integration, to be fully completed in 12 years, was ordered by a federal court.

Extra details of state police were summoned to duty in the two southern counties of Kent and Sussex.

Gov. Caleb J. Boggs said compliance would be peaceful, that Delaware is law-abiding.

In this north-south border state, sandwiched between Pennsylvania and Maryland, integration has been in effect for more than five years in most of the public schools in northern New Castle County. This area contains half of Delaware's population and includes its largest city, Wilmington.

The judge rejected total integration because it would cause "emotional strain... on a predominantly southern society."

Today's integration start admittedly is token. So far, only 30 Negro youngsters have been registered in nine of the state's 94 school districts.

The state has roughly 75,000 pupils, with about 14,000 of them Negro. Nearly half of the negroes attend schools in 17 previously integrated districts.

Mike Corgan, backfield coach at the University of Wyoming, was born in the Philippine Islands, the son of a U. S. Navy surgeon.

Parochial School opened here Tuesday with Mass at 8 a.m. There were 218 pupils registered. Half-day sessions were in effect Tuesday and today. Full days begin Thursday.

The school has a new superior, Mother Regina Isabelle, who is teaching Seventh and Eighth grades. Sister Dennis Elizabeth, also new to the school this year, is teaching Fifth and Sixth grades. Sister Alverna, Third and Fourth grades, and Sister Eleanor Mary, First and Second grades, have returned to the school this year.

LONDON (AP)—Actress Kay Kendall, who died Sunday of leukemia after a long illness, will have a private funeral, her agent announced Tuesday. The agent declined to give the date.

TOKYO (AP)—A slight earthquake was felt early Tuesday over a wide area around Tokyo. No damage was reported.
